Education - St Boniface Program Information

The maîtrise en éducation program is offered by the Université de Saint-Boniface, an affiliated college of the University of Manitoba.

The department offers the following specializations: Inclusive Special Education; Educational Administration; Guidance and Counselling; Language, Literacy and Curriculum. Some courses are the French equivalent of the courses offered at the Faculty of Education, University of Manitoba. Many courses are specific to French education in the Province of Manitoba.

Degree Requirements

In addition to the minimum course requirements of the Faculty of Graduate Studies found in the Graduate Studies Regulations (<https://catalog.umanitoba.ca/graduate-studies/academic-guide/masters-degrees-general-regulations/>), students must complete the following, based on their program route:

Thesis route: A Thesis and 18 credit hours are required. At least 12 credit hours must be taken at the 7000 level in the Faculty of Education; 6 credit hours may be taken at the 5000/7000 level in the Faculty of Education or at the 3000 level or above in other faculties.

Practicum route: A practicum and 18 credit hours are required. At least 12 credit hours must be taken at the 7000 level in the Faculty of Education; 6 credit hours may be taken at the 5000/7000 level in the Faculty of Education or at the 3000 level or above in other faculties. Candidates who opt for the practicum route must pass an oral examination open to all members of the University community and the public.

Comprehensive examination route: 30 credit hours are required. At least 18 credit hours must be taken at the 7000 level in the Faculty of Education; 12 credit hours may be taken at the 5000/7000 level in the Faculty of Education or at the 3000 level or above in other faculties. The comprehensive examination features an oral and a written component and may take the form of a literature review or a school-based project

All students must complete GRAD 7501. Students who have successfully completed GRAD 7501 in a previous program are not usually required to repeat the course upon entry to their new program so long as no more than one (1) term separates one program from another.

Language Requirement

The language of instruction and communication at USB is French. Students admitted to USB must be sufficiently proficient in French to be able to understand classroom lectures, to write assignments and to participate in classroom discussions in French. All coursework must be written in French, as well as theses, practicum reports and comprehensive examinations. International students admitted to the M.en Éd. Program at USB will not be required to complete an English Language Proficiency Test. However, all students must have knowledge of written English in order to understand the regulations and policies of the Faculty of Graduate Studies as well as assigned course readings in English.

Expected Time to Graduate: 2 years. Please see Time in Program. (<https://catalog.umanitoba.ca/graduate-studies/academic-guide/extension-time-complete-program-study/>)
